2019 Annual Diocesan Appeal: Building Our Family of Faith: A Letter from Our Bishop

In Paul's letter to the Corinthians, he says "To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For the body does not consist of one member but of many." It reminds me that in times of happiness or crisis, we are called, as one Body of Christ, to shepherd one another to holiness by our prayers and by our encouragement. In my visits to various places throughout the Diocese, I have found three themes that are mentioned by faithful Catholics time and time again: their great love for the Church, the love for their priests and parishes, and their great desire that the good work of the Church might be clearly expressed. A common thread of support for the good work of our Church is the Annual Diocesan Appeal. This year, we are looking to accomplish three critical goals through the Appeal to move the Body of Christ forward in the Diocese: Advancing Social Justice, Cultivating Catholic Leadership, and Empowering Parish Communities. It is with these goals in mind that I hope all parishioners of St. Benedict's Church will join with us this year in supporting the Appeal. Please know that whatever level you contribute; your gift will be most gratefully received.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Barry C. Knestout
Bishop of Richmond
