Starting today, ballots for the parish council elections will be available in the narthex. There are 9 candidates who have accepted their nomination and are running for 2 open positions to fill a 3-year term with the parish council.

Only registered parishioners 18 and over are eligible to vote. Adult children of registered parishioners are only eligible to vote if they have independently registered with St. Benedict's.

To complete your ballot, select two candidates, legibly fill out your name, and sign the ballot. Your name and signature ensure that the ballot came from a registered parishioner. Ballots without names will NOT be counted.

Completed ballots must be returned to the ballot box in the narthex no later than July 20th. Parishioners unable to vote in person should contact the parish office.
